

Online Resources to help you whilst working remotely

The Learning Resources Centre has a range Online Resources to help you with your learning whilst working from home. You'll find something for all subject areas.

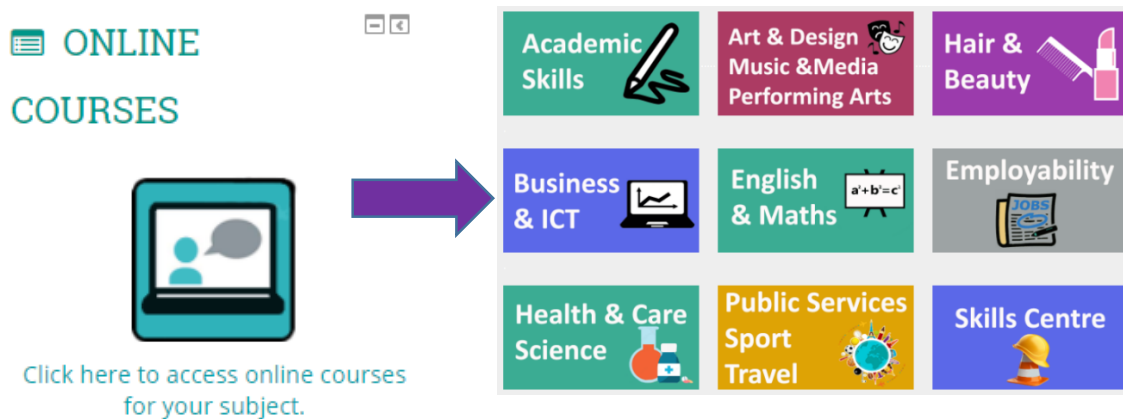

TWO Key Resources

There are two sets of online Resources available via Moodle that you can utilise from home to help you with your learning journey:

1. Online Courses – a set of high quality interactive e-learning content covering a number of different subject areas as shown below.
2. Library Electronic Resources – You can find specialised Databases with information for your subject areas here.

Accessing Online Courses

These e-Learning resources include Session Objectives, Subject Specific Information, Audio Narration, Videos, Exercises and Interactive Style Quizzes to test your knowledge with instant feedback to check your understanding as shown below.

Accessing Library Electronic Resources

You can find specialised Databases with information for your subject areas here.

Encyclopaedia Britannica – the FIRST place to start your research on ANY topic! Articles, Journals, Videos and Primary sources are all available.

Care-Knowledge – Great for everyone doing Healthcare courses. You'll find plenty of Case Studies, Reports and useful Articles linked specifically to Health & Social Care here.

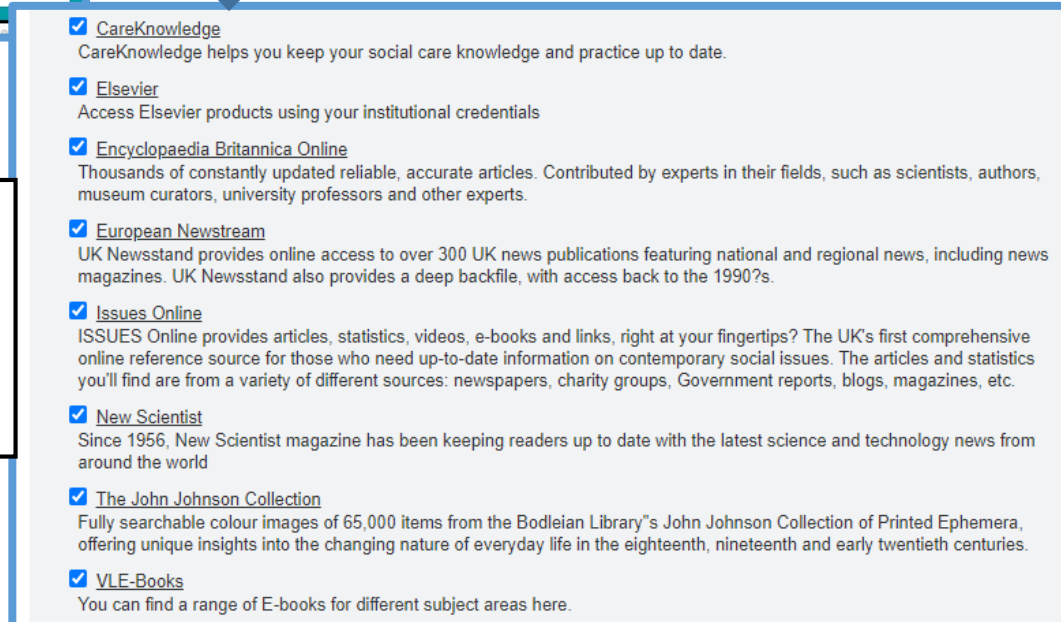

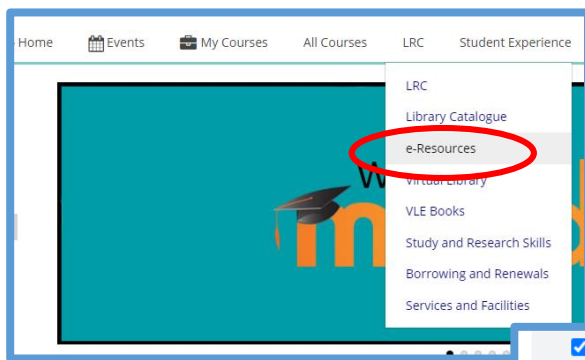

New Scientist – Up to date news and information around Science and Technology you won't find elsewhere!

Issues Online – The BEST place for Statistics, Social research and E-Books around a whole range of topic areas.

Elsevier: Science-Direct – If you want Academic Journals and higher-level research around Technology, Science and Business, then this is the place for you!

VLe-Books – This is a great place for you to find plenty of E-Books for your subject area, including Core Texts! The best part is that you can read the whole book online or download it onto your device to read later.

All of our E-Resources can be found from the LRC Tab on MOODLE as shown below OR BY CLICKING HERE:
(if logging on from home for the first time, make sure to Select 'West Thames' as your institution)
